Schedule 1 Amendments

(section 3)

[1] Section 1.3, definition of Wiring Rules

substitute

Wiring Rules means the Australian Standard – Installation Requirements for Customer Cabling (Wiring Rules) (AS/ACIF S009:2006), as in force from time to time.

[2] Subsection 3.1 (4)

substitute

- (4) For paragraph (2) (a), a cabling provider is taken to comply with the competency requirements if the cabling provider gives to a registrar:
- (a) a copy of a current registration as a cabling provider that was issued by a registrar; or
 - (b) both of the following:
 - (i) an application for renewal of registration as a cabling provider;
 - (ii) a copy of the cabling provider's registration that expired during a period that is not greater than 12 months before the application for renewal is given to the Registrar; or
 - (c) written certification from a registered training organisation that the cabling provider has completed a training course that complies with the competency requirements; or
 - (d) written advice from the ACMA stating that, for a reason mentioned in the advice, the cabling provider may use an expired registration.

Note Upon registration, a provider will receive proof of registration from a registrar. The precise form of the proof of registration is a matter for the particular registrar, but it will usually be a registration card, and in some cases a written certificate.

[3] Subsection 4.2 (1)
