

Formal Warning under subsection 129(2) of the Telecommunications Act 1997

TO: Exetel Pty Ltd (ACN 097 986 546)

OF: Level 5
121 Walker Street
North Sydney, NSW 2060

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA) is satisfied that Exetel Pty Ltd (ACN 097 986 546) (Exetel) has contravened the Telecommunications (Consumer Complaints Handling) Industry Standard 2018 (the Complaints Standard) as described below; and HEREBY issues a formal warning to Exetel under subsection 129(2) of the Telecommunications Act 1997 (the Act) for contravening paragraph 7(1)(a) of the Complaints Standard.

Details of the contravention

1. The ACMA has investigated whether Exetel's complaints handling process (CHP) complied with the minimum requirements for consumer complaints handling set out in sections 8, 9 and 10 of the Complaints Standard.
2. As a carriage service provider, Exetel is a participant in the section of the telecommunications industry to which the Complaints Standard applies and is required to comply with the Complaints Standard under subsection 128(1) of the Act.
3. After completing its investigation, the ACMA is satisfied that as at 27 July 2018, Exetel's CHP did not comply with:
  - a. paragraph 8(1)(b);
  - b. paragraph 8(1)(f);
  - c. paragraph 8(1)(g);
  - d. paragraph 8(1)(k);
  - e. section 9;
  - f. paragraph 10(f); and
  - g. paragraph 10(g)of the Complaints Standard.

4. Accordingly, the ACMA finds that Exetel contravened paragraph 7(1)(a) of the Complaints Standard on 27 July 2018, by not establishing a CHP that includes the minimum requirements for consumer complaints handling.
