Extensions granted by the ACMA under Section 68 of the BSA

Notices given by ACMA under Section 70 of the BSA

Extensions granted by ACMA under Section 71

21 April 2016

Under section 67 of the BSA (Applications for prior approval of temporary breaches) a person may, before a transaction takes place or an agreement is entered into that would place a person in breach of a provision of Division 2 (Limitation on control) or 3 (Limitation on directorships), make an application to the ACMA for an approval of the breach.

Under section 68 of the BSA (Extensions of time for compliance with a notice issued under section 67) a person who has been given a notice under section 67 of the BSA may, within three months before the end of the period specified in the notice, apply in writing to ACMA for an extension of that period.

Under section 70 of the BSA, if the ACMA is satisfied that a person is in breach of a provision of Division 2 or 3, the ACMA may by notice in writing given to the person direct that person to take action so that the person is no longer in breach of that provision.

Under section 71 of the BSA, a person who was given a notice under section 70 may, within 3 months before the end of a period specified in the notice may apply in writing to the ACMA for an extension of that period.

ACMA is required to maintain a public register of these matters under section 75 of the BSA.
