

Formal Warning under subsection 103(1) of the Telecommunications Act 1997

TO: ATS Telecoms Pty Ltd (ACN 069 143 157)

OF: Suite 9, Level 1
401 Pacific Highway
Artarmon, NSW, 2064

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA), being satisfied for the reasons explained in the ACMA's investigation report sent to ATS Telecoms Pty Ltd (ATS Telecoms) on 6 July 2020, that ATS Telecoms contravened subsection 101(1) of the Telecommunications Act 1997 (the Act) by failing to comply with subsection 128(1) of the Telecommunications (Consumer Protection and Service Standards) Act 1999 (the TCPSS Act);

HEREBY issues ATS Telecoms a formal warning under subsection 103(1) of the Act for its failure to comply with section 101 of the Act and section 128 of the TCPSS Act.

Details of the contravention

Obligation

Subsection 101(1) of the Act provides that a service provider must comply with the service provider rules that apply to the provider. Subsection 98(1) provides that the service provider rules include the rules set out in Schedule 2 to the Act. Clause 1 of Schedule 2 to the Act provides that a service provider must comply with the Act, which is defined to include the TCPSS Act.

Subsection 128(1) of the TCPSS Act provides that an eligible carriage service provider (CSP) must enter into the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman (TIO) scheme.

Under subsection 103(1) of the Act, the ACMA can issue a formal warning to a service provider if the service provider contravenes a service provider rule.

Investigation

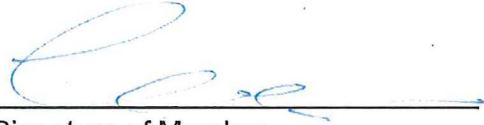

The ACMA received a referral from the TIO on 8 April 2020 alleging that ATS Telecoms was an eligible CSP and had failed to join the TIO scheme in accordance with subsection 128(1) of the TCPSS Act. Following an investigation, preliminary findings were made by the ACMA that it was reasonable to assume that ATS Telecoms was an eligible CSP and required to join the TIO scheme.

A copy of the preliminary investigation report was given to ATS Telecoms on 14 May 2020.

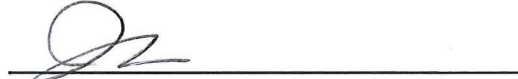

In response, ATS Telecoms advised that it would make an application to join the TIO scheme.

The TIO confirmed that ATS Telecoms had joined the TIO scheme on 19 May 2020.

For the period January 2018 to 19 May 2020, that ATS Telecoms was an eligible CSP and did not join the TIO scheme, it contravened subsection 128(1) of the TCPSS Act, and thereby failed to comply with the service provider rule set out in clause 1 of Schedule 2 to the Act, in contravention of subsection 101(1) of the Act.
