

Direction under subsection 121(1) of the Telecommunications Act 1997

TO: Primus Telecommunications Pty Ltd ACN 071 191 396

OF: Level 10, 452 Flinders Street, Melbourne VIC 3000

Attention: Ms Ashe-lee Jegathesan, General Counsel and Company Secretary

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA), being satisfied that Primus Telecommunications Pty Ltd ACN 071 191 396 (Primus), has contravened the Integrated Public Number Database (IPND) Industry Code (C555:20017) (the IPND Code) as described below;

DIRECTS Primus, under subsection 121(1) of the Telecommunications Act 1997 (the Act) to comply with the IPND Code.

Details of the contraventions

1. The ACMA has investigated Primus's compliance with the IPND Code, which is an industry code registered under Part 6 of the Act. As a carriage service provider (CSP), Primus is a participant in a section of the telecommunications industry to which the IPND Code applies.
2. The ACMA is satisfied that Primus has contravened the following clauses of the IPND Code:
 - (a) 4.2.1 – because Primus, a CSP that provides carriage services to customers using public numbers, failed to provide the relevant public number customer data (PNCD) to the IPND Manager in respect of multiple carriage services it supplies.
 - (b) 4.2.11 – because Primus failed to ensure that certain public number customer data provided to the IPND Manager was accurate, complete and up to date. Specifically, Primus did not upload any PNCD to the IPND in respect of multiple carriage services it supplies and provided PNCD with an incorrect connection status in respect of multiple carriage services it supplies.
 - (c) 4.2.25 – because Primus failed to supply to the IPND Manager PNCD updates that occurred on one business day, by the end of the next business day in respect of multiple carriage services it supplies.
3. Further details about the contraventions are set out in the investigation report provided with this Direction.

Requirement to comply with this Direction

Under subsection 121(2) of the Act, Primus must comply with a direction under subsection 121(1) of the Act.

If Primus does not comply with this direction, the ACMA may apply to the Federal Court for an order that Primus pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty in respect of its contravention of a civil penalty provision (subsection 121(4) and section 570 of the Act).

Reconsideration of a decision

Under subsection 558(1) of the Act, Primus may apply to the ACMA for the ACMA to reconsider the decision to give Primus a direction to comply with the IPND Code under section 121 of the Act. The application must be submitted in writing to the ACMA and must set out the reasons for the application (subsection 558(2) of the Act). The application must be made within 28 days after Primus is informed of the decision, unless the ACMA extends the period for making the application (subsection 558(3) of the Act).

If, upon reconsideration, the decision is affirmed or varied and Primus is dissatisfied with that decision, it may:

- (a) subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 (the AAT Act), apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the reconsideration decision; and
- (b) request a statement under section 28 of the AAT Act in relation to that decision (Section 562 of the Act.)
