Dear Mei-Lin,

I thought I would send the following files to ACMA relating to a huge outside broadcast Harmony FM did last Wednesday 4th November at Hawkesbury's Helping Hands charity in Windsor.

Harmony FM had 7 presenters at the event on the day, the event was seven hours in duration. Our listeners heard live interviews from our Mayor Patrick Conolly, Counsellor Sarah Richards from Hawkesbury City Council, Helping Hands manager Linda Strickland and five other local representatives. It was a special occasion for the community as Harmony FM kicked off the Mayor's Christmas Appeal. It was a huge day of broadcasting and Harmony FM received dozens of calls from the community congratulating a great outside broadcast.

This coming week we have been invited to broadcast the Remembrance Day Service for the 11th November and this will go Live to Air as well because this is our air-time.

We just wanted to let ACMA know what Harmony is doing and that Harmony has many live events and have no hiccups with technical or programing.

Please see a few photos attached from this day.

Thanking you
Mary Jane McMahon
