

Option C: transition non-assigned amateur stations to class licensing arrangements

Option C proposes authorising the operation of non-assigned amateur stations by holders of foundation, standard or advanced level qualifications through a class licence rather than apparatus licences. The operation of assigned amateur beacon and repeater stations would continue to be authorised under apparatus licensing arrangements.

I vote for C