Radiocommunications (Broadcasting (Low Power Open Narrowcasting) Transmitter Licence - Allocation) Determination 2001

1. Commencement

This instrument commences when it is made.

2. Definitions

In this instrument, unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) ACMA means the Australian Communications and Media Authority;
- (b) a reference to a delegation to exercise a power or perform a function includes a delegation to refuse to exercise that power or to refuse to perform that function;
- (c) a reference to a “Member” is a reference to a Member of ACMA including the Chair, Deputy Chair and all full and part-time Members but not including Associate Members; and
- (d) “SES2” and “SES1” mean the positions filled by ACMA staff who are classified as Senior Executive Service employees of the Australian Public Service.

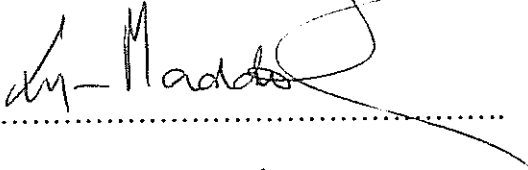

3. Delegation

On 2 February 2006, acting under section 51 of the Australian Communications and Media Authority Act 2005, ACMA:

- (a) REVOKES all previous delegations of the powers ACMA may exercise under the Radiocommunications (Broadcasting (Low Power Open Narrowcasting) Transmitter Licence-Allocation) Determination 2001 (excluding any delegations made by ACMA on the same day as this instrument);
- (b) DELEGATES the powers and functions described in columns 1 and 2 of each item of the Schedule to the persons performing the duties from time to time of:
 - (i) offices specified by name in column 3 of the same item; and
 - (ii) positions with the classification specified in column 3 of the same item; and

- (c) LIMITS the delegation in paragraph (b) of each power and function itemised in columns 1 and 2 of the Schedule:
- (i) in the manner specified in column 4 of the same item; and
 - (ii) to the exercise of those powers and functions by ACMA staff in the course of their duties relating to allocating transmitter licences by a price-based allocation system.

The common seal of ACMA was affixed in the presence of:

Signature of ACMA Member
