Instructions for completion

- > Please print clearly. Illegible, unclear or incomplete application forms may delay processing.
- > Please read these notes before completing this application.
- > The completed application can be provided either in a hard copy (paper) or electronic form. An electronic version of Form B014 is available from acma.gov.au.
- > Some questions require the attachment of an appendix. For these, identify each appendix according to the question number to which it relates. For example, an appendix which contains information sought in question 8 would be called 'Appendix Q8'. Appendices may be attached to the electronic version as separate Word files.

The renewal process for community broadcasting licences is not a competitive process. When we consider applications for renewal of a community broadcasting licence, we consider, among other things, the current service provided under the existing licence and not any other proposed service.
