

Formal Warning under subsection 103(1) of the Telecommunications Act 1997

TO: Dodo Services Pty Ltd (158 289 331)

OF: 452 Flinders Street
Melbourne, VIC 3000

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA), being satisfied that Dodo Services Pty Ltd (Dodo) contravened subsection 101(1) of the Telecommunications Act 1997 (the Act) by failing to comply with clause 19 of Schedule 2 to the Act;

HEREBY issues a formal warning, under subsection 103(1) of the Act, to Dodo to comply with the service provider rule set out in clause 19 of Schedule 2 to the Act.

Details of the contravention

1. The ACMA has investigated whether Dodo complied with the requirements under clause 19 of Schedule 2 to the Act, which requires a carriage service provider (CSP) that receives an inquiry from a prospective residential customer about the supply of a standard telephone service, to provide certain information to the prospective customer regarding priority assistance.
2. Dodo is a CSP as defined in section 87 of the Act. As a CSP, it is subject to the obligation imposed by subsection 101(1) of the Act, which requires it to comply with the service provider rules applicable to it. The service provider rules, set out in section 98 of the Act, include those in Schedule 2 to the Act.
3. After completing its investigation, the ACMA found that Dodo did not comply with paragraph 19(2)(b) of Schedule 2 to the Act on 10 occasions, as detailed in Attachment A to the ACMA's Investigation Report, as it did not inform prospective residential customers, who made an inquiry about the supply of a standard telephone service, of the names of one or more CSPs from whom the prospective residential customer could obtain priority assistance in connection with a standard telephone service.
4. Accordingly, the ACMA found that Dodo contravened clause 19 of Schedule 2 to the Act, thereby also contravening subsection 101(1) of the Act.
