Good afternoon,

I am just reading the proposed charges for Amateur Radio, I believe you have made a pricing error, It would be good if the price given was true but I fear it is wrong.

"Type 4 – Application for a 'special event call sign', which is an application for:

- > a temporary call sign attributable for a special event; or
- > a call sign with prefix VK9 or VK0.

The total estimated time for ACMA staff to process an application is 50 minutes. Total charge (based on the hourly rate of $226.00) = $52.75"

I believe that this price should be $188.35.

Additionally, you haven't priced Licence variations. That is going to be of quite an amount of interest.

Thanks and best regards,
