

4.4 LABOUR HIRE

LEAD/SUPPORT: HELEN OWENS | CAROLE ROWE

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) uses labour hire contractors to supplement its workforce, typically to secure specialist skills (such as ICT roles). The information below relates to labour hire arrangements in the ACMA.

KEY ISSUES

- As of 31 August 2023, the ACMA had 92 labour hire contractors active:
  - 42 were in ACMA
    - 74% (32) are in the Digital and Technology Services Branch.
  - 50 were in eSafety
    - 60% (30) were in the Technology and Digital Branch.
- Between 1 July 2023 and 31 August 2023, 5 new labour hire contractors commenced:
  - 4 in ACMA
  - 1 in eSafety.
- Between 1 July 2023 and 31 August 2023, 7 labour hire contractors ceased:
  - 0 in the ACMA
  - 7 in eSafety.

Table1: ACMA contractor spend – year to date

Ledger	YTD Amount $ (GST Exclusive)	Comment
General	860,406	Excludes project Opex
Project	1,671,043	Includes project Opex
Total	2,531,449*

Table 2: eSafety contractor spend – year to date

Ledger	YTD Amount $ (GST Exclusive)	Comment
Admin	517,010	Nil.
Dept	1,868,130	Nil.
Total	2,385,140

Clearing Officer
Richard Bullock
A/g General Manager
Corporate and Research Division

Contact Officer
Carole Rowe
Executive Manager
Human Resources and Communication
Ph (02) 6219 5301
Mobile 0429 980 173

Date 29/09/2023