

Part 13 of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992

Section 173

NOTICE TO PROVIDE DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION

To: Authenticate Solutions Pty Ltd (ACN 624 762 269)

At: [REDACTED]

Attention: Timothy Joseph Hart and James Lindsay Cameron, Directors

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA) for the purposes of an investigation conducted under subparagraph 21(1)(a)(i) of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (the IGA), into whether the provision of the Relevant Online Services, defined in Schedule A to this notice, contravened Part 2 of the IGA because those services are prohibited interactive gambling services and/or an unlicensed regulated interactive gambling services with an Australian-customer link (the investigation), HEREBY gives notice under paragraph 173(b) of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (the BSA) requiring Authenticate Solutions Pty Ltd (Authenticate Solutions) to provide to the ACMA, by the time and date specified below, the documents and information specified in Schedule B to this Notice relevant to the subject matter of the investigation.

Background

1. The ACMA has certain investigative powers under Part 13 of the BSA, including the power to give this Notice. Section 22 of the IGA provides for the use of those powers in relation to IGA compliance investigations commenced under section 21 of the IGA.
2. The ACMA may conduct investigations under section 21 of the IGA into whether a person has contravened a provision of Part 2 of the IGA.
3. Under Part 2 of the IGA, a person must not provide a prohibited interactive gambling service (see subsection 15(2A)) and an unlicensed regulated interactive gambling service (see subsection 15AA(3)) that has an Australian-customer link.
4. Where a regulated interactive gambling service, within the meaning of section 8E of the IGA, has an Australian-customer link the person providing the service must hold a licence (however described) under a law of a State or Territory that authorises the provision of that kind of service in the State or Territory.
5. Where a 'gambling service' is provided in the course of carrying on a business and using an internet carriage service, it is a type of service which would be a prohibited interactive gambling service, unless a relevant exclusion applies (see section 5 of the IGA). The ACMA has commenced an investigation under section 21 of the IGA into whether a person has contravened Part 2 of the IGA in relation to the provision of prohibited and/or unlicensed regulated interactive gambling services with an Australian-customer link via the Relevant Online Services defined in Schedule A.

6. During the ACMA's investigations, the ACMA identified Relevant Entities defined in Schedule A and is investigating their possible involvement in the provision of these online services. This includes [REDACTED]
7. Information that the ACMA has acquired indicates that there was a commercial arrangement between ISIGNTHIS EMONEY (AU) Pty Ltd (now Authenticate Solutions Pty Ltd) and [REDACTED]
8. The documents and other information required by this Notice are relevant to the subject matter of the investigation.

Words in this Notice, including the Schedules to this Notice, have the meanings set out in Schedule A to this Notice.

TAKE NOTE:

1. Subsection 202(2) of the BSA provides that it is an offence for a person required to answer a question, to give evidence or to produce documents under Part 13 of the BSA to:
 - (a) when required to take an oath or make an affirmation, refuse or fail to take the oath or make the affirmation; or
 - (b) refuse or fail to answer a question that the person is required to answer; or
 - (c) refuse or fail to produce a document that the person is required to produce.

A person convicted of this offence may be liable to imprisonment for one year.

Subsection 202(2A) of the BSA provides that a person will not be liable if the person has a reasonable excuse (see too subsections 202(3) and (4)). In criminal proceedings, a defendant bears an evidential burden if relying on the reasonable excuse defence (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

2. Subsection 202(2AA) of the BSA has the effect that the ACMA may institute proceedings for a civil penalty order if, a person required to answer a question, to give evidence or to produce documents under Part 13 of the BSA:

- (a) when required to take an oath or make an affirmation, refuses or fails to take the oath or make the affirmation; or
- (b) refuses or fails to answer a question that the person is required to answer; or
- (c) refuses or fails to produce a document that the person is required to produce.

Subsection 202(2A) of the BSA provides that a person will not be liable for a civil penalty if the person has a reasonable excuse (see too subsections 202(3) and (4)). A person who wishes to rely on subsection 202(2A) in proceedings for a civil penalty order bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter (see subsection 202(2B) of the BSA).

3. Giving false or misleading information or documents is a serious offence (see sections 137.1 and 137.2 of the Criminal Code).
