

From: Amateur Radio Assessors
To: [REDACTED]
Bcc: Anneke Van der Weyde; Roslyn Hiser
Subject: ACMA accredited assessor application - [REDACTED] [SEC=OFFICIAL]
Date: Monday, 8 April 2024 5:26:00 PM
Attachments: image001.png
image002.png
image003.png
image004.png

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your application to become an accredited assessor with ACMA.

In accordance with paragraph 11(1)(f) of the Radiocommunications Accreditation (Amateur Radio Examination) Rules 2023, the ACMA must have regard to whether you had been removed from the AMC's List of Authorised Assessors before 13 December 2023. As you informed us, you ceased to be an assessor before 13 December 2023.

The ACMA is also aware of:

- a. a possible disagreement between you and the AMC regarding the conduct of examinations, including in relation to the use of a private residence; and
- b. a possible deterioration of the working relationship between you and the AMC and its staff;

before you ceased to be an assessor for the AMC.

Before the ACMA makes a decision on your application for accreditation, you are being given the opportunity to provide us with any information, and provide us with your views, about the possible disagreement between you and the AMC regarding the conduct of examinations, and your working relationship with the AMC.

Kind regards

Spectrum Licencing Policy Section

Australian Communications and Media Authority arassessors@acma.gov.au
acma.gov.au

The ACMA acknowledges the Traditional Owners of Country throughout Australia and their continuing connection to land, culture and community. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and future.