Good morning, Allan,

A quick courtesy email, to let you know that we will be trialling some spot beams commencing with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] this morning, and then [REDACTED] in the next day or so, as part of some testing we are conducting.

In many respects, this is simply another “base station” within our spectrum, although in other respects, it is a bit novel given it’s coming from LEO satellites. So as a courtesy, I thought I would let you know.

Thanks Allan,

Regards, [REDACTED]
