Subject: Total ban on Alcohol and betting advertising.

Message Body:

Hi,
I would like to see a total ban on all alcohol and betting advertising, like Australia did with banning Cigarette advertising.

To me, being an ex smoker and ex drinker, I don't want to be reminded of what I was once addicted to, in particular alcohol which costs the community an enormous amount.

The costs to our society could be better spent on beneficial things, like improved health services and the like.

However, I think our government is too addicted to the revenue it raises, especially from taxes raised and won't want to give this up easily.

Unfortunately the government can't see pass the immediate gains from theses taxes, to the longlasting benefits to communities and our society if drinking and gambling rates are reduced.

Yours Sincerely
