Subject: TV ads for alcohol

Message Body:

I implore you to maintain existing restrictions on TV advertising of alcohol. In fact, in my opinion, alcohol represents such a threat to society that all advertising should be banned as it is for tobacco products. Domestic violence, aggression, damage to unborn children, health issues, etc, all of which you are aware, are enormous social problems. They cost individuals an unmeasurable amount. And alcohol costs our society a huge amount - health costs, law and order, work force, etc. Advertising is part of the problem, especially if it normalises drinking for young people. Of course the alcohol lobby wants to increase sales and wants freer advertising codes and that is proof enough that advertising should be restricted. Please stop tv ads for alcohol. Thank you.
