[CAUTION - EXTERNAL]

From: [REDACTED]
Subject: Alcohol advertsing on free to air television

Message Body:

The swathe of alcohol and gambling advertising on television, as well as print and online, have various damaging impacts. For people struggling with addiction, or recovering, seeing these ads causes unnecessary trauma and stress, with the potential to create conditions ripe for relapse. It also sends a normalising message to children and teenagers. Alcohol and gambling continue to claim lives, yet nothing is being done by governments, advertisers and large companies.
