I am comfortable with you providing the Dept/MO with a copy subject to the qualifier that there has been no Authority decision on the release of the proposed draft Code for consultation.

Hello,

One more question: it probably makes sense for us to provide a copy of the draft Code to the Dept/MO, as at 5 December (i.e. the version we submit to you tomorrow).

This would be a clean copy, without comments.

As noted, we will provide you with two versions tomorrow:

1. A clean copy
2. A copy with comments which note:
 - a. ACMA feedback on key issues – and how they've been addressed
 - b. RC feedback on key issues – and how they've been addressed, or why they've not been addressed.

The RC would see both at public comment stage.

Are you comfortable with our providing this to them ahead of Monday?

Thanks,

Yes you are correct. The Authority will be considering the draft Code at its meeting of 12 December.

Subject to the outcomes of that meeting we would intend to provide you with feedback as soon as possible and ideally by cob on 13 December.

Thank you, Tanya.

On another note, may I please check timeframes with you:

Am I right in thinking that the Authority is considering the draft Code that we provide you tomorrow at its meeting on 12 December?

And would it be reasonable to expect feedback by COB on 13th December?
