IPAA latest offerings

See below the latest offerings from The Institute of Public Administration Australia (IPAA):

- Work with Purpose podcast series: Embracing Neurodiversity in the Public Sector
Neurodiversity has become an important topic in the Australian public sector. With research suggesting that teams can be 30 per cent more productive with neurodivergent professionals, workplaces stand much to gain from greater inclusivity. Yet, many public sector workplaces can still do more to be neurodiversity inclusive. In this episode, three public service thought leaders in the field consider: How can public sector work environments be improved to better leverage the skills of neurodivergent employees?

International Women's Day - Wednesday 8 March

The theme for this year's International Women's Day 2023 is 'Cracking the Code: Innovation for a gender equal future'. This theme is based on the United Nations 67th Commission on the Status of Women priority theme 'Innovation and technological change, and education in the digital age for achieving gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls'.

For anyone interested in exploring more information about how to get involved details can be found at <https://unwomen.org.au/get-involved/international-womens-day/>
