International Women's Day 2024 guest speaker

Next Friday 8 March is International Women’s Day, which each year is a good time to reflect on the ways in which gender equity and diversity in our workforce leads to better business outcomes and a better place to work. We are excited to announce that this year we will hear from guest speaker [REDACTED], a cross-platform political journalist with experience in online, television and radio journalism. [REDACTED] will join us on Wednesday 14 March – an invitation is coming to your inbox soon!

This is also ahead of the launch of our ACMA Diversity and Inclusion Strategy 2024-26, which we consulted on with you late last year and are looking forward to finalising and launching in the next couple of months.

[REDACTED] acknowledges First Nations peoples as the Traditional Owners and Custodians of Australia. We respect and celebrate First Nations peoples as the original storytellers and content creators of the lands on which we work and honour the enduring strength and commitment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to the land, waters and their communities. We pay our respects to Elders past, present, and emerging.
