Dear Colleagues,

There are several opportunities on now or coming up which are great ways to reflect on and take meaningful action to support diversity and inclusion at the ACMA and eSafety. We believe diversity is our strength and inclusion is our responsibility – reflected in the goals and actions of Our Diversity and Inclusion Strategy.

IDAHOBIT 2025: Stand for inclusion, every day

Last Saturday marked the International Day Against Homophobia, Biphobia, Interphobia and Transphobia (IDAHOBIT). This day is dedicated to raising awareness of the discrimination still faced by LGBTQIA+ people and standing up for the right of every individual to live and work free from fear, shame or exclusion. Read more at IDAHOBIT 2025: Stand for inclusion, every day. Plus, if you haven't already, it's not too late to get together with your colleagues to arrange a rainbow-themed morning or afternoon tea in support of IDAHOBIT 2025!

National Reconciliation Week 2025: Bridging Now to Next

Next Tuesday 27 May is the start of National Reconciliation Week, a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia. There are several ways you can show your support and participate, including:

- Attend the Indigenous Procurement Showcase at 11am to 12pm on Tuesday 3 June – look out for your invite in your inbox.
- Help to build a bridge together by creating a leaf as part of the ACMA's Community Installation, at each of our offices.

Find out about these and other opportunities at National Reconciliation Week 2025: Bridging Now to Next.

APS Employee Census: Halfway mark!

We are at the half-way point of the 2025 APS Employee Census period. The Census is an opportunity to have your say and help make positive changes to the ACMA and the Australian Public Service. The 2025 Census is open for another 2 and half weeks closing COB Friday 6 June. The more responses we receive, the better insights we will have into what we are doing well as an agency and where we can improve.
