Dear Colleagues,

On the occasion of National Reconciliation Week \(NRW\) 2025, our Reconciliation Action Plan \(RAP\) Working Group invite ACMA eSafety staff to a presentation about the Australian Government's Indigenous Procurement Policy \(IPP\) and what it means for Nations communities and businesses, the ACMA and eSafety.

The IPP aims to stimulate Indigenous entrepreneurship, business and economic development, providing Indigenous Australia more opportunities to participate in the economy. Come along to hear about upcoming changes to strengthen the IPP, how v tracking as an agency against our IPP targets, and we'll hear from one of our own First Nations suppliers, Evolve FM.

██████████ – ACMA

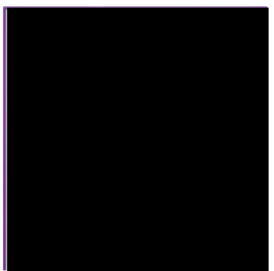

Executive Manager, Spectrum Allocations, Licensing and Policy Branch
Communications Infrastructure Division

██████████ joined the ACMA last year and has extensive experience in the Australian Public Service including working on native title, Closing the Gap and the Priority Reforms, and the Voice referendum. Robbie is a member of the ACMA and eSafety Reconciliation Action Plan Working Group.

██████████ – NATIONAL INDIGENOUS AUSTRALIANS AGENCY (NIAA)
Branch Manager, Business and Economic Policy

In February 2025, the Australian Government announced changes to the Indigenous Procurement Policy \(IPP\) to increase the ambition of the policy and ensure that the economic benefits of the IPP are flowing to First Nations people as intended. ██████████ will tell us about these changes and how they strengthen outcomes for First Nations people. ██████████ team also provides support and advice to a across the Commonwealth to progress First Nations economic empowerment.

██████████ – EVOLVE FM

Client Relationships Manager

Evolve FM is a 100% Indigenous-owned full service integrated facilities management and property business. Through leveraging the Indigenous supply chain, Evolve drives better outcomes for Indigenous businesses across Australia, helping to create financial independence for Indigenous people. Since Evolve FM has been the ACMA's property services provider, attending to all our facilities management tasks and assisting in negotiating new commercial and lease transactions.
