Good morning,

As part of our ongoing commitment to promoting respect and understanding for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, I encourage you all to participate in the Acknowledge This! 2-hour virtual workshop on 27 November at 2:00pm.

This workshop will help us deepen our understanding of Indigenous culture, while refining how we create and deliver meaningful Acknowledgement of Country. The Acknowledge This! session will help us explore not only the purpose behind Acknowledgement of Country, but also how to personalise and make it relevant to our own voices. It will challenge us to reflect on our relationship with the land and its First Nations peoples, while empowering us to create acknowledgement that resonate on deeper level.

The session itself is engaging, interactive, and fun! Some employees from the Branch have attended previously and they tell me the facilitators do an incredible job of making everyone feel comfortable and keeping the atmosphere light, while still delivering on the key objectives of the workshop. There's a great balance between learning, discussion, and moments that will have you laughing along with the group.

I'm looking forward to seeing many of you from the Branch there. Please reach out if you have any questions or would like to discuss this further.

Regards
