We're pleased to invite [REDACTED] from the Diversity Council Australia to speak to our division on inclusive language at work. Research demonstrates that inclusive cultures are high performing cultures – they deliver greater performance and productivity. How we speak to and about each other influences how we treat each other, and this builds our workplace cultures.

[REDACTED] will talk about how language can be used to create a sense of being valued, respected and one of the team, or of being under-valued, disrespected and an outsider.

[REDACTED] (she/her) is the Education Director at Diversity Council Australia (DCA). Prior to this role, she project managed the groundbreaking RISE project and facilitated their Racism at Work training. [REDACTED] has a Bachelor of Arts degree in philosophy and political science from the University of the Fraser Valley (Canada) and a Juris Doctor, Master of Laws and Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice from Bond University (Australia).

Outside of DCA, [REDACTED] is the Principal and Founder of Shakti Legal Solutions; an award winning innovative low-bono law firm designed specifically to improve access to legal assistance for everyday people through a unique 'pay what you can' model. She is a professional speaker, independent DEI consultant and volunteers her time on various not-for-profit organisations and boards, including the Queensland Law Society and Happy Tails Animal Rescue.
