

The ACMA acknowledges First Nations peoples as the Traditional Owners and Custodians of Australia. We respect and celebrate First Nations peoples as the original storytellers and content creators of the lands on which we work and honour the enduring strength and commitment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to the land, waters and their communities. We pay our respects to Elders past, present, and emerging.

Hi [REDACTED],
See additional question from [REDACTED] below. I would say the answer is – we have received a complaint or the issue has been raised with us by a Guardian journalist and we have asked the provider for information about the circumstances.
That reminds me – is it still correct to say we have no investigations on foot as at the moment and no other complaints
And, is it still correct to say we have no investigations on foot as at the moment
As distinct from 31 December 2024
Many thanks
