

Your ABC complaint

ABC Ombudsmans Office11 <Ombudsmans Office11.ABC@abc.net.au>

Tue 2024 08 20 1:41 PM

Good afternoon,

Thank you for contacting the ABC regarding the Four Corners program "Infiltrating Australia" and accompanying article, broadcast and published on 17 June 2024. We apologise for the delay in responding to you.

The ABC Ombudsman's Office received a number of complaints about this content and has conducted an investigation of story. The office is separate to and independent of content making areas within the ABC. Our role is to review and, where appropriate, investigate complaints about ABC content concerning the ABC's editorial standards in accordance with the ABC's complaints handling process. The editorial standards can be found in the Editorial Policies.

The Ombudsman's Office has produced a report which outlines the Ombudsman's findings that the content did not breach the ABC's editorial standards. The full report is available here.

Thank you for providing us the opportunity to respond to you.

Should you be dissatisfied with this response to your complaint, you may be able to pursue the matter with the Australian Communications and Media Authority <http://www.acma.gov.au>

Yours sincerely,

ABC Ombudsman's Office

---

Please consider the environment before printing this e-mail.

The information contained in this email and any attachment is confidential and may contain legally privileged or copyright material. It is intended only for the use of the addressee(s). If you are not the intended recipient of this email, you are not permitted to disseminate, distribute or copy this email or any attachments. If you have received this message in error, please notify the sender immediately and delete this email from your system. The ABC does not represent or warrant that this transmission is secure or virus free. Before opening any attachment you should check for viruses. The ABC's liability is limited to resupplying any email and attachments.