Subject: RE: Response to ACMA preliminary findings [SEC=OFFICIAL]

Dear [REDACTED]

Following on from Monday's call, we wanted to take the opportunity again to thank the ACMA for everyone's time and the valuable feedback provided to Sportsbet.

Sportsbet is fully committed to strict compliance with the Interactive Gambling Act and is likewise committed to bringing the Fast Code service into compliance with the ACMA's preliminary view.

We also reiterate that this matter continues to have the focussed attention of Sportsbet's senior executive, who would like to assure the ACMA that the initial feedback has been heard and is being actioned [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] We will be in a position to discuss in much greater detail when we next meet on 16 October 2023, at a time convenient to the ACMA. We would be grateful if you could advise of your availability on that date.

In the meantime, Sportsbet assures the ACMA that this matter continues to be a major priority with teams devoted to this work and that Sportsbet is confident the ACMA's feedback will be reflected in the detailed proposal put to the ACMA.

Thank you again for the ongoing consultative and constructive dialogue with the ACMA's representatives. If you have any queries, please feel free to contact us any time.

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Further to my email below, I can now confirm that Sportsbet is available to join the ACMA for a discussion regarding our letter of 11 September and processes involved in [REDACTED] of this kind on Monday, 18 September at 1pm.

Would you like to circulate a Teams invite? We would be happy to circulate an invite but would be restricted to Zoom unfortunately (which I understand is not preferred).

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email, and apologies for the slow reply. I was out of the office yesterday.

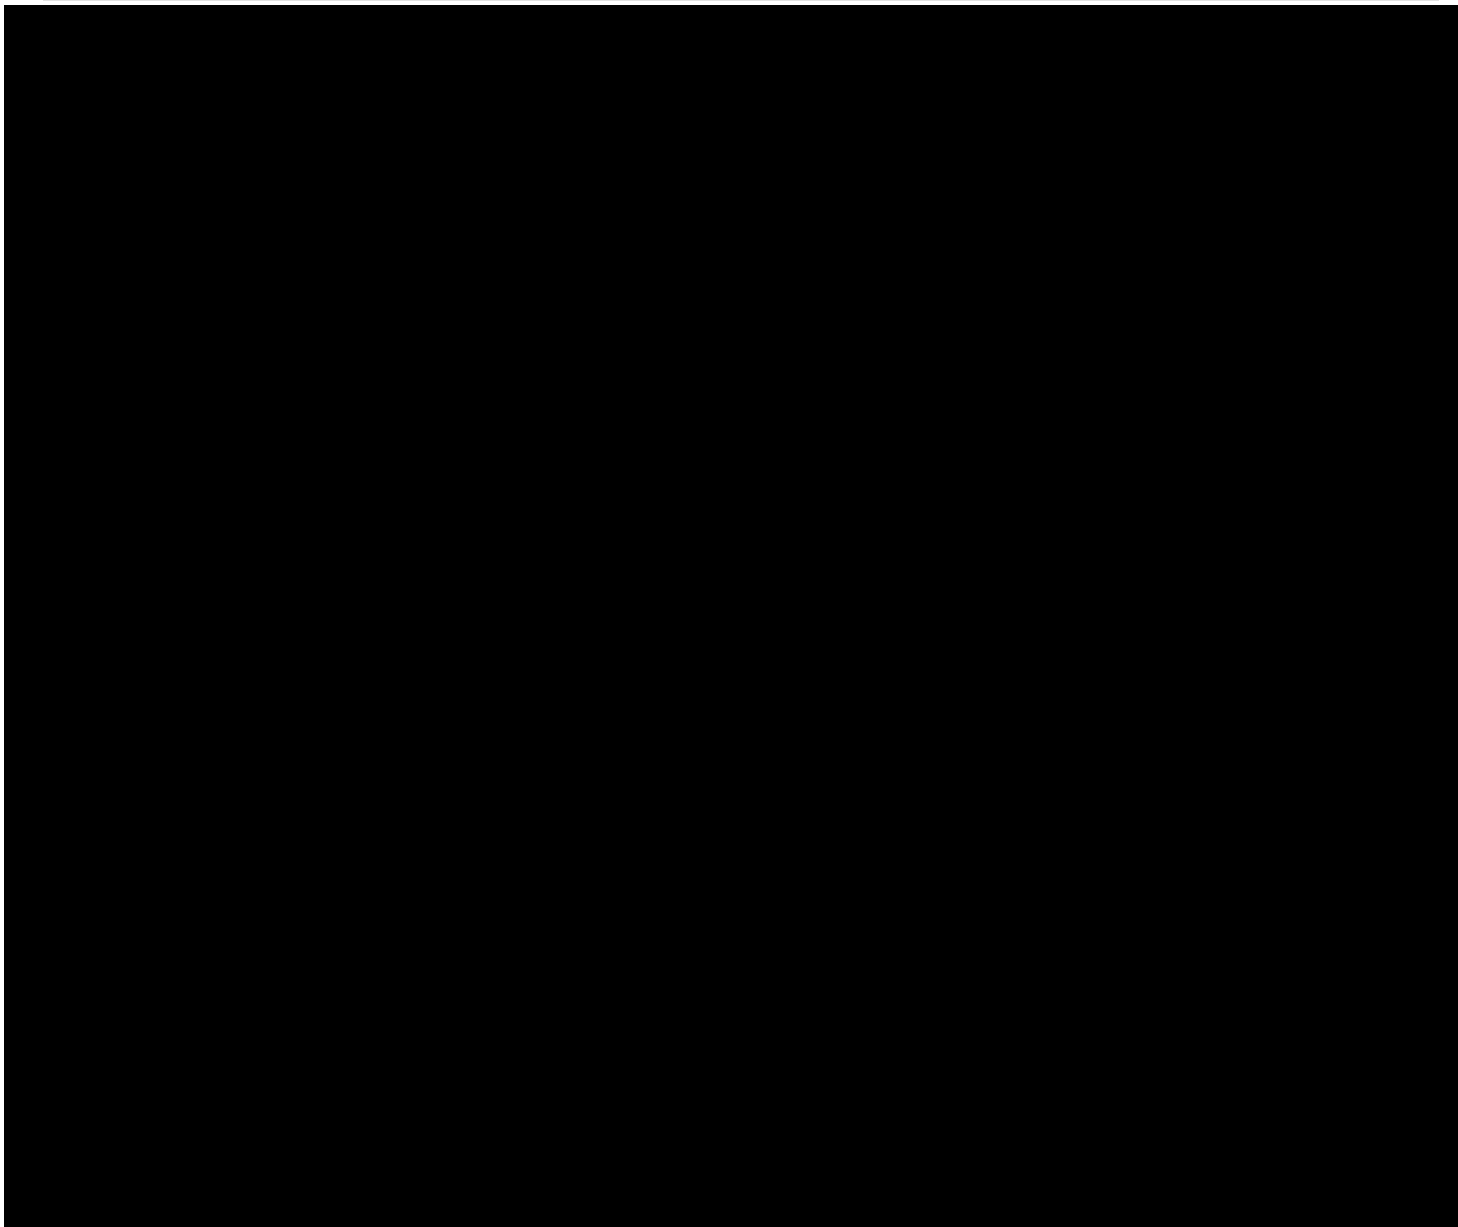

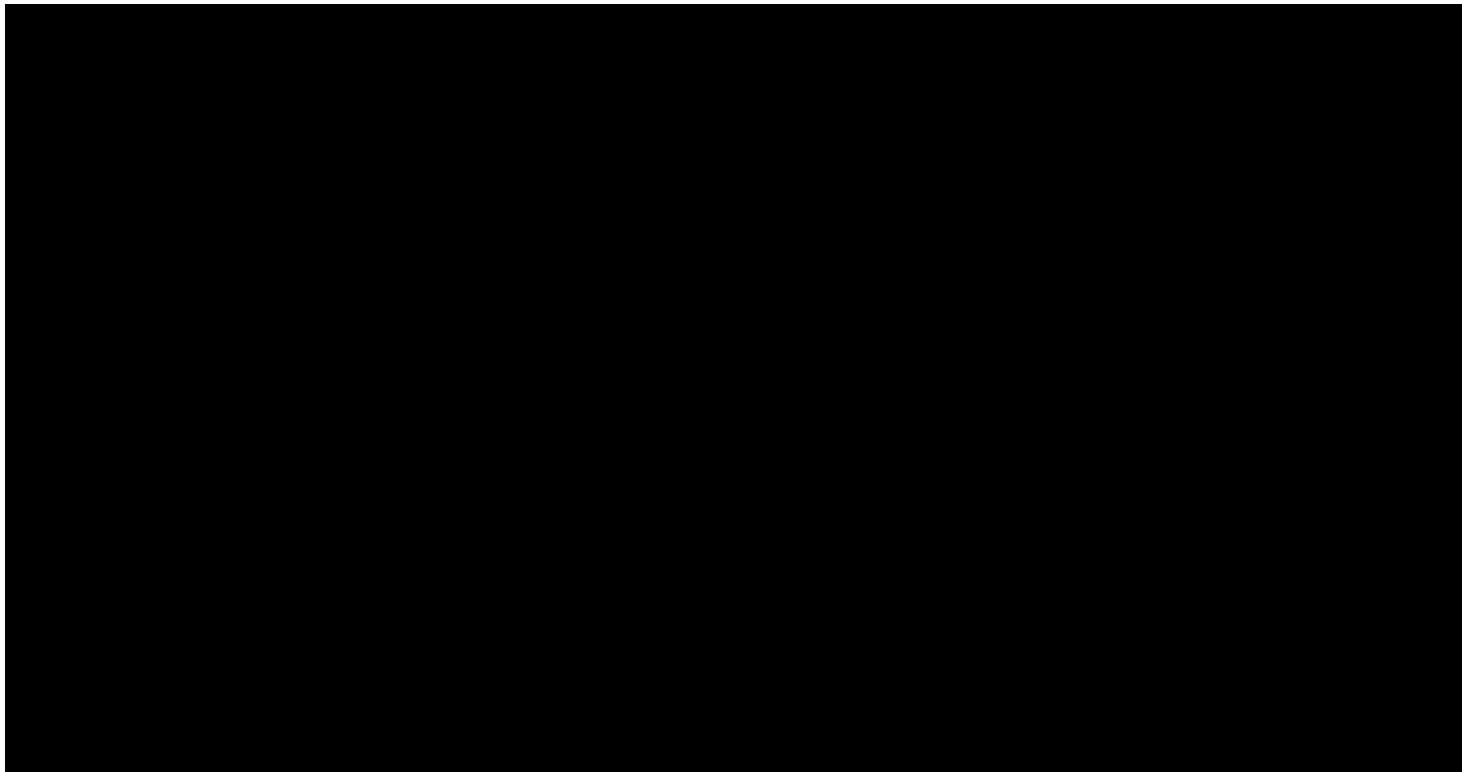

We are checking availability for a call and will revert as soon as we're able to this morning with Sportsbet's availability. This will most likely be in the early part of next week and aiming for Monday in one the available slots that suit the ACMA.

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you again for your time discussing this matter last week, and thank you also to [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Sportsbet appreciated the opportunity to meet with you.

There were some questions raised during the discussion which were taken on notice with Sportsbet to respond to the ACMA on. Please see below Sportsbet's responses to those questions.

We are otherwise continuing to work towards providing the ACMA with a submission by 11 September 2023. If you have any further queries prior to that, don't hesitate to contact us.

1. Is a Fast Code available for every live sporting event?

[REDACTED]

2. Is it possible for two different customers to be allocated a different code for the same event?

[REDACTED]

3. What is approximate split between live singles and multi bets?

Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for your patience. Confirming Sportsbet would be grateful to meet with the ACMA at 4pm today.

Sportsbet representatives will be myself, [REDACTED] (Chief Legal & Risk Office), [REDACTED] (General Manager, Product), [REDACTED] (General Manager, Technology Delivery) and [REDACTED] (General Manager, Customer Operations, TBC).

We will circulate an invite now. I can only include a Zoom link but we'd be happy to try and change this today to Teams and likewise happy if ACMA amend the Invite to Teams (which Sportsbet can access).

Thanks and kind regards

Dear

Thank you for your email, and confirming the ACMA's agreement to meet and providing availability. We are just finalising Sportsbet availability asap this evening and will revert as soon as possible (noting the first available time slot is tomorrow afternoon and we're conscious of ACMA team members' other commitments and that availabilities may change).

We would be happy to share an invite once timing known.

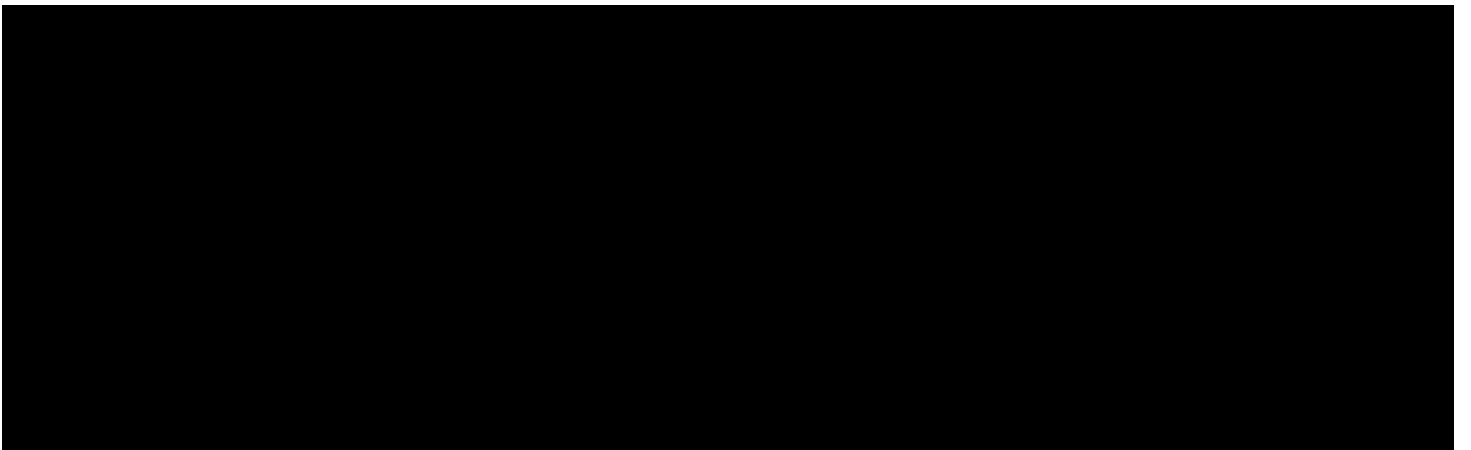

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank for your time on the phone today. Sportsbet is appreciative of the opportunity to provide further submissions on this matter.

[REDACTED]

To that end, Sportsbet would like to meet with the ACMA and requests a meeting for this purpose prior to making any further submission, at a time that might be convenient for the ACMA.

If it assists, we can make ourselves available at any time after 12:30pm on Wednesday or Thursday this week. We would also be happy to share a proposed draft agenda prior to the meeting together with a list of Sportsbet attendees (and roles).

We look forward to hearing from you.

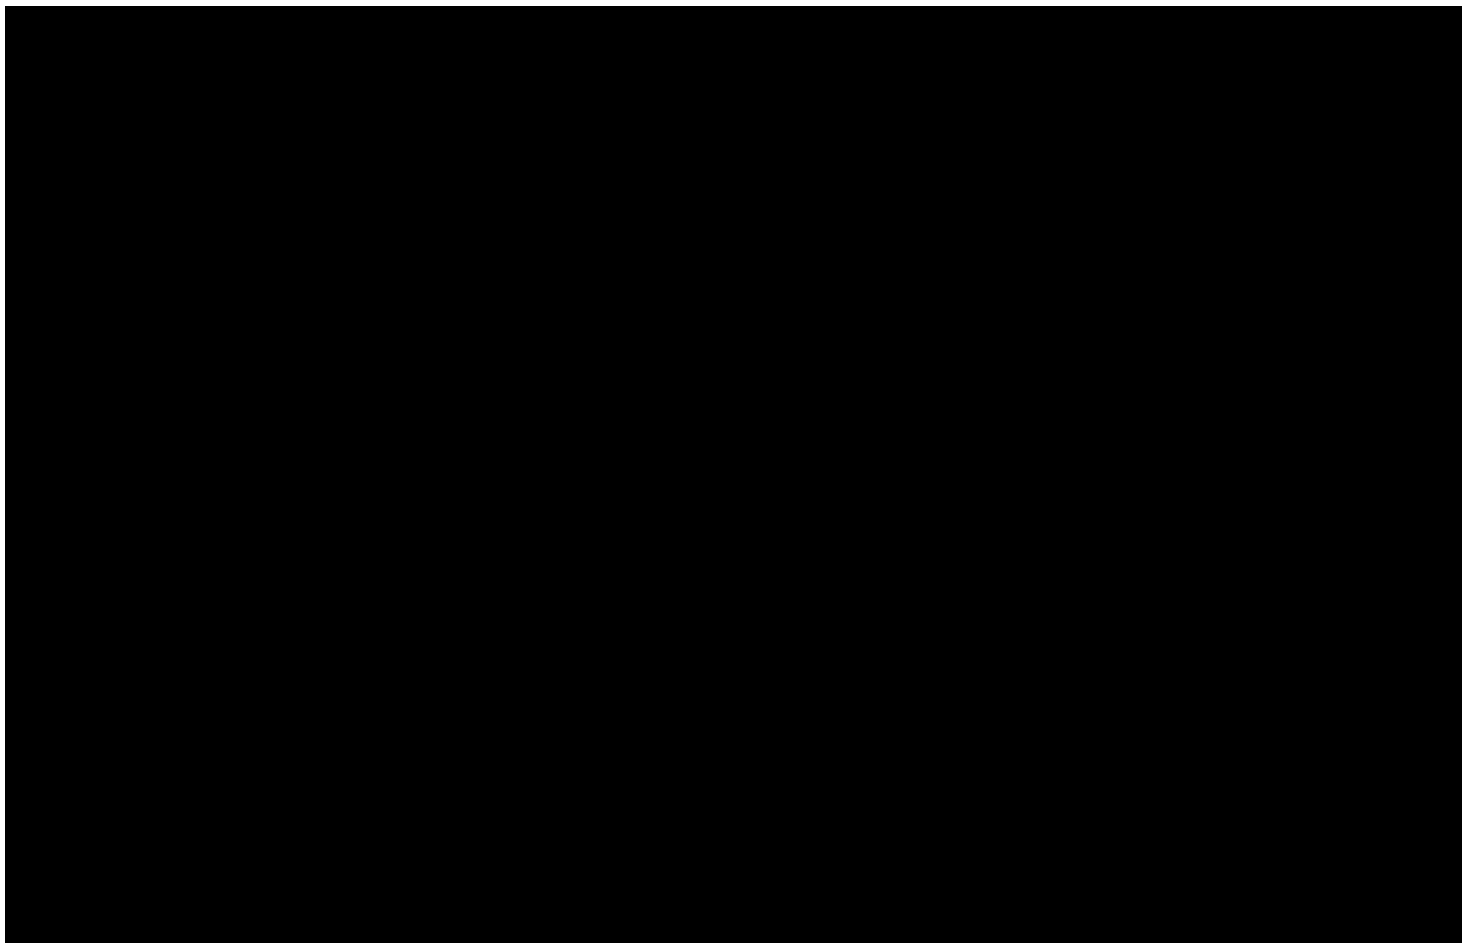

Thanks and kind regards,
