INTRODUCTION

(A) PREAMBLE

1. The Australian Subscription Television and Radio Association Inc. ('ASTRA') is the industry body representing those operating radio and television narrowcasting services under class licences in accordance with the provisions of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (the 'Act').
2. Narrowcasting services provide a wide range of innovative services, catering to specialised interest. As these services have narrowly defined audiences and appeal, they come under a class licence regime, with lesser levels of regulation.
3. Sections 17 and 18 of the Act define narrowcasting services as broadcasting services whose reception is limited by:
 - being targeted to special interest groups;
 - intended only for limited locations;
 - provided during a limited period of time or to cover a special event;
 - because they provide programs of limited appeal;
 - or for some other reason.
4. Subscription narrowcasting services differ from open narrowcasting services in that they are made available only on payment of subscription fees.

(B) GENERAL LICENCE CONDITIONS

1. As narrowcasters operate under class licences they are subject to the conditions provided under Part 7 Schedule 2 to the Act, which covers matters including:
 - a ban on tobacco advertising;
 - a requirement to comply with any applicable program standards approved by the Australian Communications and Media Authority ('ACMA')
 - a condition not to use the broadcasting service to commit an offence; and
 - requirements to comply with the Act in relation to broadcast of political and electoral material (including the requirement to keep records of material broadcast) and advertisements relating to medicines.

The relevant sections of Schedule 2 to the Act form Attachment B to these Codes.

2. The purpose of the Codes is to establish specific obligations for narrowcasters within the co-regulatory framework, in relation to programming, handling of complaints, and where applicable, the classification and placement of programs and customer service.

(C) REVIEW AND AMENDMENT OF CODES

These Codes will be reviewed every three years. Any review will be undertaken in full consultation with the public and representative organisations.

If any substantive changes to the Codes are necessary, such amendments will be made in consultation with the ACMA.

(D) PUBLICISING THE CODES

Narrowcasters will publicise the availability of the ASTRA Codes of Practice at regular intervals in program guides and during broadcast time, where appropriate. Subscription narrowcasters will advise subscribers at the time of subscription via the subscription agreement or other alternative means that the Codes (including complaints procedures) are available. Copies of the Codes will be provided to the public on request. The Codes are also available on the ASTRA website www.astra.org.au.

(E) DEFINITIONS:

In these Codes:

“narrowcaster” means the person or organisation providing a narrowcast service as defined in the Act.

“program” in relation to a broadcasting service, means:

- (a) matter the primary purpose of which is to entertain, to educate or to inform an audience; or
- (b) advertising or sponsorship matter, whether or not of a commercial kind.

“program guide” unless otherwise specified refers to a narrowcaster’s printed or electronic program guide.

“program promotions” are announcements and previews advertising scheduled programs.

- 1.3 In broadcasting news and current affairs programs narrowcasters must not use material relating to a person's personal or private affairs, or which invades an individual's privacy, other than where there are identifiable public interest reasons for the material to be broadcast.
- 1.4 Narrowcasters will not broadcast any program which is likely in all the circumstances to provoke, or perpetuate intense dislike, serious contempt or severe ridicule against a person or group of persons on the grounds of age, colour, gender, national or ethnic origin, disability, race, religion or sexual preference.
- 1.5 Narrowcasters will not broadcast a program which is likely in all the circumstances to seriously offend the cultural sensitivity of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people or culturally and linguistically diverse communities in Australia.
- 1.6 Narrowcasters will not broadcast programs that:
 - (a) are designed to induce a hypnotic state in the audience; or
 - (b) use the process known as "subliminal perception" or any other technique that attempts to convey information by broadcasting messages below or near the threshold of normal awareness.
- 1.7 A narrowcaster must not broadcast the words of an identifiable person unless:
 - (a) that person has been informed in advance or is aware that the words may be broadcast; or
 - (b) in the case of words which have been recorded without the knowledge of the person, that person has subsequently, but prior to the broadcast, indicated consent to the broadcast of the words.
- 1.8 A narrowcaster will not breach clause 1.2(b), 1.4, 1.5, 1.6(b) or 1.7(b) if a program includes matter said or done reasonably and in good faith:

- (c) in broadcasting a fair report of, or a fair comment on, any event or matter of identifiable public interest.

1.9 Narrowcasters must seek to comply fully with all Codes, but a failure to comply will not be a breach of the Codes if that failure was due to:

- (a) a reasonable mistake;
- (b) reasonable reliance on information supplied by another person;
- (c) an act or failure to act of another person, or an accident or some other cause beyond the narrowcaster's control, provided that the narrowcaster took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the failure; or
- (d) an act or failure to act which, in all the circumstances, was clearly peripheral or incidental, and unlikely to offend or materially mislead viewers.

Where it is possible to remedy a failure to comply with the Codes, narrowcasters must do so promptly.

1.10 Narrowcasters will comply with the provisions relating to betting advertising including the promotion of betting odds in Appendix A.

CODE NO. 2

HANDLING COMPLAINTS

- 2.1 In the first instance, complaints should be made to the narrowcaster.
- 2.2 Narrowcasters will make every reasonable effort to resolve complaints except where a complaint is clearly frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith. Narrowcasters will respond to all complaints in a courteous and comprehensive manner and deal with the substantive issues of the complaint.
- 2.3 Reasonable effort will be made to deal with a telephone complaint during the course of the telephone call. If that is not possible, the complainant may be asked to make the complaint in writing (which may be made by email).
- 2.4 Written complaints will be acknowledged and answered in writing (which may be via email), where possible within the shortest practicable period from the date of receipt of the complaint, but no longer than 60 days after receipt of the complaint. If the complainant has not received a response to a telephone or written complaint within 60 days of making the complaint, or considers the response to be inadequate, he or she may refer the complaint to the ACMA.
- 2.5 With the exception of complaints under the Customer Service Code (Code 3), in responding to a written complaint narrowcasters will advise complainants that if they are not satisfied with the narrowcaster's response, the complaint may be referred to the ACMA.

(Note: see clauses 3.3 and 3.4 for referral of complaints under the Customer Service Code (Code 3)).

- (4) Clauses 1(a) and 2 do not prevent the Promotion of Betting Odds other than by a Commentator (including spot commercials and paid, clearly identified sponsorship segments presented by person(s) other than Commentator(s)) during a Long Form Live Sporting Event:

Play does not include periods of analysis, re-play footage or discussion that occur before and after the coverage of the run of play or active progress of the event for each day.
- (6) Clause 1(b) does not prevent the broadcast of Betting Advertisements:
- (a) before Play has commenced;

- (a) a failure to comply arises from a Live Sporting Event originating from outside Australia; and
 - (b) the narrowcaster has not added the Promotion of Betting Odds or Betting Advertisement; and
 - (c) the narrowcaster does not receive any direct or indirect benefit for the Promotion of Betting Odds or the broadcast of the Betting Advertisement in addition to any direct or indirect benefit received from broadcasting the event; and
 - (d) it is not reasonably practicable for the narrowcaster to remove the Promotion of Betting Odds or Betting Advertisement.

(14) In this Appendix:

“Accidental” means an unscripted and unplanned reference (including remarks by a Commentator) for which the narrowcaster does not receive any direct or indirect benefit (whether financial or not, and in addition to any direct or indirect benefit that the narrowcaster receives for broadcasting the Live Sporting Event).

“Betting Advertisement” means, an advertisement by, or a distinct promotional reference for, a gambling or betting organisation during a Live Sporting Event, and includes any writing, still or moving pictures, signs, symbols or other visual images or any audible message(s) (or any combination of those things) that provides generic information about the organisation’s brand, business or services. A Betting Advertisement does not include an advertisement or a reference:

- (a) relating to such things as Government lotteries, lotto, keno or contests;

- (b) relating to entertainment or dining facilities at places where betting or gambling take place, or a tourism commercial which incidentally depicts betting or gambling, provided in each case that the contents do not draw attention to betting or gambling in a manner calculated to directly promote their use; or
- (c) that is Accidental; or
- (d) that is an Incidental Accompaniment.

“Betting Odds” means comparative, generally monetary, odds offered in respect of a game or event for a bet on the chance of any occurrence or outcome within that particular game or event, or the overall outcome of the game or event. For the avoidance of doubt, Betting Odds includes comparative odds for horse, harness and greyhound racing.

“Commentator” means a person who is a host, guest or otherwise participating in a Live Sporting Event and includes a person calling, or providing analysis on the sporting event or game, but does not include discrete or distinguishable contributors, including clearly identified representatives of gambling or betting organisations.

“Incidental Accompaniment” means a reference or other material which occurs or is included in the normal course of broadcasting a Live Sporting Event for which the narrowcaster does not receive any direct or indirect benefit (whether financial or not, and in addition to any direct or indirect benefit that the narrowcaster receives for broadcasting the Live Sporting Event) and includes:

- the name of a sporting venue;
- a player’s or official’s uniform; or
- advertising or signage at the venue of the event which is the subject of the Live Sporting Event, for example, on a field barrier, big screen or scoreboard.

“Live Sporting Event” means a live-to-air broadcast of a sports event. A Live Sporting Event does not include broadcasts of programs that contain only analysis, award presentations or information.

“Long Form Live Sporting Events” include:

- sporting events of extended duration, such as golf, cricket (excluding 20/20 cricket) and motor sports events;
- tournaments for single sports that involve concurrent games or matches, such as tennis championships; and
- multi-sport events, such as the Olympic and Commonwealth Games.

“Play” means the period of the actual run of play or active progress of the sporting event or game which is the subject of the Live Sporting Event. It commences at the time the players enter the area of play directly before the start of the event or game and concludes at the time the players leave the area of play following the end of the event or game. It includes ad hoc unscheduled breaks such as:

- stoppages for injuries;
- stoppages for adjudication by third or TV umpires/referees; and
- time outs and substitutions in games such as basketball.

For the avoidance of doubt, Play does not include:

- periods of training or warm-up in the area of play before a sporting event or game where players or participants subsequently return to the dressing rooms or sheds before formally re-entering the area of play;
- in relation to tennis, any period prior to the first coin toss for a Session or any period commencing 5 minutes after the broadcast coverage of the run of play or active progress for each Session concludes.

“Promotion of Betting Odds” means a distinct promotional reference that provides Betting Odds and includes any writing, still or moving pictures, signs, symbols or other visual images, or any audible message(s) (or any combination of those things). A Promotion of Betting Odds includes superimposed text and graphics such as banner advertisements and sponsorship logos but does not include a reference or material that is:

- Accidental; or
- An Incidental Accompaniment.

“Scheduled Break in Play” means stoppages in a sporting event or game that is the subject of a Live Sporting Event. A Scheduled Break in Play will differ depending on the sporting event or game that is the subject of the broadcast, for example:

Sport	Scheduled Break
Test Cricket	• Between each Session (ie., lunch break and tea break) • Drinks break • Change of innings
One Day International Cricket	• Between each Session / Change of innings • Drinks break

Sport	Scheduled Break
	more than once every hour
Basketball	• Quarter time • Half-time • Three-quarter time • Between full time and overtime
Netball	• Quarter time • Half-time • Three-quarter time

Formula 1 / MotoGP / V8 Supercars non-endurance races	• Between each practice round, qualifying round and race
Olympic Games & Commonwealth Games	• Between each day, twilight and night session • A distinct break of at least 90 seconds (including when during a session the broadcast switches from one event still in Play to another event in Play at the same time), such break to occur not more than every 2 hours

This is not an exhaustive list and other sporting events or games may also contain a Scheduled Break in Play, as determined by the rules and regulations of that sport.

“Session” means:

- in relation to tennis, the day, twilight, or evening session of matches as scheduled by the organisers of the relevant tournament or competition; and
- in relation to test cricket, any of the three distinct sessions of a match that are divided by lunch and the tea break; and
- in relation to one-day cricket, an innings.

“Unscheduled Break in Play” means the period when Play is suspended or delayed due to rain or other unforeseen event, the participants have left or are yet to enter the area of play and the broadcast of replacement or stand-by programs has not commenced.

ATTACHMENT A: CONSUMER ADVISORY SERVICES

In most instances, consumers will have rights under both federal and state or territory consumer protection legislation. The main source of federal consumer protection law is the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (CCA) which is administered by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC).

The ACCC is unlikely to accept single consumer complaints relating to fault repair, credit or billing. If a person wishes to make a formal complaint about such issues it will usually be more appropriate for them to approach the relevant fair trading or consumer protection agency in their state or territory. Each state and territory has laws that regulate fair trading, consumer claims, credit management and contracts. While some agencies will provide advice over the telephone, in most instances, action will only be taken for written complaints.

If a matter cannot be resolved through direct contact with the business or by the intervention of a government agency, consumers can consider using an independent mediator or dispute resolution body, or pursuing the matter in the court system.

The collection, use, disclosure and storage of a subscriber's personal information is protected under the federal Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner investigates complaints from individuals about interferences with privacy under the Privacy Act.
