Hi Shanyn & [REDACTED]

As mentioned in our meeting yesterday, please see attached the 'Preliminary views on pricing' paper for the ESL stage 3 consultation, to be considered alongside the other papers provided last week.

We've also provided a spreadsheet with a summary of the prices and the impacts on different networks compared with the previous prices paid for their ESLs, the latter of which are understandably not included in the paper.

Please note that the paper has not yet been reviewed by Michael Brealey or considered by the Authority and is therefore subject to change.

Kind regards

Hi Shanyn [REDACTED]

Please find attached draft versions of the ESL stage 3 consultation papers to assist in preparing briefing the minister and for your comment. (Another email will follow with the second set of papers – apparently we’re over the file size limit for outlook).

These papers are due to be considered by the Authority at the 13 March 2025 meeting and we would appreciate any feedback or comments by COB 12 March.

A few things to note:

- the preliminary views paper on pricing is not ready to be shared yet but will be provided hopefully sometime within the next week.
- these papers have not yet been reviewed by Michael Brealey or considered by the Authority and are subject to change, although as previously discussed, the Spectrum Committee has considered and broadly endorsed the substantive preliminary views expressed within
- we have not yet incorporated text relating to today’s announcements around UOMO.

We’re happy to organise a time prior to 12 March 2025 to discuss any issues or questions.

Kind regards,
