Good morning Cath and [REDACTED],

Apologies for not getting this to you yesterday. Tomorrow (Wed 4 Dec) is my last day for 2024, and I'm trying to clear a few things off the "backlog".

Given tomorrow is my last day for 2024, I wonder whether we could call this the last report, please? As you can see, the conversion is flattening out, and will just continue to trickle on. Please let me know if that's ok.

Anyway, it's been another quiet week for 3G exit with no major issues to report regarding blocking of devices.

Below is the table with the number of blocked handsets through to Mon 2 December.
