Dear Sir/Madam

Contravention of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 – Dama N.V.

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA) is responsible for investigating and taking enforcement action for contraventions of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (the IGA).

The ACMA has recently completed an investigation into the Wanted Win service made available at <https://www.wantedwin7.com>.

The ACMA found that Dama N.V. contravened subsection 15(2A) of the IGA by providing a prohibited interactive gambling service to Australian customers.

On 16 May 2024, the ACMA advised Dama N.V. of the ACMA's preliminary contravention findings. No response was received.

The ACMA finalised the investigation on 11 June 2024. The ACMA issued a Formal Warning to Dama N.V. under section 64A of the IGA on 14 June 2024.

If Dama N.V. continues to provide prohibited regulated interactive gambling services to persons physically located in Australia, the ACMA may take further action.

I have attached a copy of the Formal Warning issued to Dama N.V. as well as the key provisions of the IGA.

We have brought this matter to your attention as we understand that there is an intention to expand the role of the Gaming Control Board Curaçao to the regulation of online gaming in Curaçao. We understand that findings of illegal activity may be relevant to your future consideration of the suitability of a licensee.

We would appreciate it if you could forward this Formal Warning to Antillephone N.V. and/or to Dama N.V. to ensure that it has been brought to their attention.

If you have any questions on the above, please contact me at [REDACTED].

Thank you for your engagement in this process.

Yours sincerely

Encl: Formal Warning, Relevant provisions of the IGA

Formal Warning

under section 64A of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001

To: Dama N.V.

Of: Scharlooweg 39 U.3
Curaçao

[REDACTED]

Attention: [REDACTED] and [REDACTED],
Statutory Directors of Allyant Group B.V., Statutory Director of Dama N.V.

I, [REDACTED], delegate of the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA), being satisfied that Dama N.V. has contravened subsection 15(2A) of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (the IGA):

HEREBY issue Dama N.V. a formal warning under section 64A of the IGA, for one or more contraventions of subsection 15(2A) of the IGA, being civil penalty provisions.

Details of the contravention/s

Obligations under the IGA

1. Subsection 15(2A) of the IGA provides that a person must not provide a prohibited interactive gambling service that has an Australian customer link.
2. A 'prohibited interactive gambling service' is defined in section 5 of the IGA and 'gambling service' is defined in section 4 of the IGA.
3. Under section 8 of the IGA, a gambling service has an Australian-customer link if, and only if, any or all of the customers of the service are physically present in Australia.

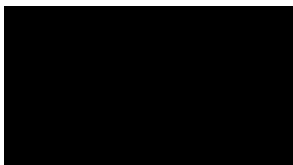

Investigation

4. Under section 21 of the IGA, on 10 May 2024, the ACMA commenced an investigation into whether the Wanted Win service provided a prohibited interactive gambling service in contravention of the IGA.
5. During the period of the investigation the Wanted Win service was available via the URL <https://www.wantedwin7.com>.
6. Dama N.V. is a provider of the Wanted Win service.

Contravention of subsection 15(2A) of the IGA

7. The Wanted Win service offered 'gambling services', including casino-style games of chance or mixed chance and skill, played for money where the customer gave consideration to play the game (paragraph (e) of the definition of 'gambling service' in section 4 of the IGA).
8. The Wanted Win service was provided in the course of carrying on a business and was provided to customers using an internet carriage service (section 5 of the IGA).
9. The Wanted Win service had an Australian customer-link.
10. The ACMA found that, as a provider of the Wanted Win service, Dama N.V. has contravened subsection 15(2A) of the IGA by providing a prohibited interactive gambling service to customers physically present in Australia.
