Hi [redacted],

Thank you for your email.

We are working to develop guidance materials and hope to share them in the coming weeks. Among other things, these materials will respond to the question you raise about the definition of a 'paying subscriber'.

The ACMA is working through industry feedback around the election of revenue method. We will write to SVODs shortly with advice.

Cheers,

[redacted]

H[redacted] ACMA team,

Appreciate ACMA's note last week informing that two notification forms have been published.

I'm reaching out to follow up on our mid-Dec 2025 conversation. Two things –

1. We were wondering when more detailed guidance would likely be made available. We have commenced internal assessments, and are mindful of the 2 Mar 2026 deadline for notifying ACMA if revenue model is elected. ACMA's guidance would be extremely helpful to this end.

2. We also raised the question of the definition of "paying subscribers". We welcome ACMA's clarification.

Please let us know if it would be helpful to jump on a brief call to discuss these points further.

Many thanks.

Cheers,
[redacted]

Hi [redacted]

Acknowledging receipt of the two forms, and noted the plan to publish these forms on ACMA's website on 12 Jan 2026.

Look forward to detailed guidance in the new year.

Happy holidays to all!

Cheers,

Good afternoon [redacted] and [redacted],

Thank you for the opportunity to meet earlier this month to discuss the Australian Content Requirement on Subscription Video on Demand (SVOD) Services.

I'm writing to share with you two forms that the ACMA has developed to support SVODs to meet their requirement to notify the ACMA about particular information by 2 March 2026.

- SV01 SVOD annual notification form for services with at least 250,000 paying subscribers
- SV02 notifiable circumstances form (to notify the ACMA on changes throughout an SVOD reporting year)

We plan to publish these forms on our website on 12 January 2026.

More detailed guidance will follow in 2026. In the meantime, wishing you a safe and enjoyable break over the Christmas/new year period.

Cheers,

[redacted]
