Good afternoon,

RE: Your complaint about a Four Corners program broadcast on ABC on 10 March 2025

This is a brief update to let you know we received your webform complaint on 13 August 2025.

We are looking into the issue you have raised, however due to a high volume of complaints we are currently taking longer than usual to assess complaints. We will be in touch in due course with our decision about how we will proceed.

Privacy and your complaint

As a complaint about a code matter should be made to the broadcaster before it is made to the ACMA, the complainant's name and address are usually disclosed to that broadcaster. We may need to contact the broadcaster and refer to the complainant's details to access a copy of the broadcast or in requesting further information to assist our assessment.

You can read the ACMA's privacy policy on our website.

Yours sincerely,
