For review - draft preliminary investigation report for Sacrifice (BI-753) .msg

Good morning Alana,

Just following up on Autumn's email from earlier today & seeking a steer from you about sending the draft preliminary investigation report to Carolyn – namely, would you like to email her or are you happy for me to email her (& copy in the Team)?

I have attached a draft email (with the relevant attachments) to Carolyn seeking her review of the draft preliminary investigation report. [redacted]

Please let me know if you have any questions and/or your preferred method of communicating with Carolyn.

Regards,

Thanks [redacted], and for the chat this afternoon – as discussed, in trying to retrofit the additional arguments into the existing report, there are probably a few places where we've ended up repeating some points and could tighten the report up (particularly in the section on the ANAO report).

Having said that, I think it is best if we move it along to make sure we're reflecting the substance of the Authority's views, rather than trying to tidy it up in advance.

Autumn, subject to your views on the amendment report (clean and tracked-changed copies attached and in the links below), would you be comfortable if we circulate a version along these lines to the Authority members for a sense-check, and at the same time get LSD to review/do a tidy-up?

Thanks [redacted] – I'd like to make a couple of changes; in the current CRM situation would it be best to make changes to the tracked-changed version?
